The Robert W. Woodruff Fellowship is awarded to BSN-prepared nurses who have been accepted to the Master of Science in Nursing program. Qualified candidates are academically outstanding, possess impressive communication skills, demonstrate a motivation for the study of nursing, have demonstrated significant leadership and creativity in either their school or community, and have a clear potential for enriching the lives of their contemporaries at Emory University. A candidate must have also achieved a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.5 in previous college-level work and a minimum GRE score of 1700 if taken before October 1, 2002 or 1100 on the revised scoring system. Applications for admission must be submitted by January 15th, 2008. Finalists will participate in on-campus interviews as part of the selection process. The Robert W. Woodruff Fellowship carries a full tuition stipend for up to four semesters of graduate study.

All essays should be returned to the Emory University School of Nursing, Office of Admissions and Student Services, 1520 Clifton Road, Suite P10, Atlanta, GA 30322 For more information, visit www.nursing.emory.edu, email admit@nursing.emory.edu, or telephone 404.727.7980.
